

BTEC Level 2 Extended Certificate in Hospitality

What is the Level 2 BTEC Level 2 Extended Certificate in Hospitality?

The hospitality industry consists of a wide range of organisations, all of which benefit from employees with appropriate training and qualifications. This certificate has been designed to equip learners interested in working in the hospitality and catering sector with an understanding of its key elements, in preparation for either entering employment or progressing to further studies.

Candidates will study the following topics:

- Investigating the Catering and Hospitality Industry
- Products, Services and Support in the Hospitality Industry
- Planning and Running a Hospitality event
- Healthier Food and Special diets
- Prepare, Cook and finish food
- Contemporary World Food

Where will this qualification take me?

Employment opportunities following completion of the course would enable successful candidates to enter initial employment, at a junior level, in such positions as hotel receptionist, bar person or food service assistant.

The achievement of the BTEC Level 2 Extended Certificate has the equivalence of 2 GCSEs graded A*-C.