

FILM STUDIES

Film Studies is designed to develop students' appreciation and knowledge of film through studying the way a film as an audio-visual form of creative expression constructs meaning, provokes spectator response and raises issues of personal, social, cultural, political and ethical significance.

In Year 12 we will study:-

Producers and audience - the relationship between the production and consumption of films in Hollywood and Britain.

40% of the work in year 12 is the creative project

60% of the work in year 12 is examination

The examination is 2 $\frac{1}{2}$ hours

In Year 13 we will study:-

How films construct meaning and provoke responses, developing an appreciation of the history of film and its cultural. Looking at world cinema and spectatorship.

50% of the work in year 13 is the creative project

50% of the work in year 13 is examination.

The examination is 2 $\frac{3}{4}$ hours

